

Breaking up is hard to do.

But it doesn't have to break the bank
or leave you
feeling defeated.

In mediation, experienced facilitators help you craft a separation agreement that satisfies both of you. It's a win-win.

Contact the Mediation Center of Charlottesville to begin the dignified, confidential process of mediating issues such as child custody, co-parenting, support, and equitable distribution. We also mediate workplace and neighbor disputes, eldercare concerns among family members, employer/contractor differences, and more.

We've been helping people
for more than 28 years and may be able to save you
significant time
and money.
