
Why are the police being called?

Below is a breakdown of the top 5 reasons police were called in 2018 to three locations in downtown Roanoke: The City Market building, the bus station and the West Station apartments on Salem Ave. Each reason is sized proportionally to the others. Public service calls are noncriminal, such as well-being checks.

