

Govs drop fifth straight in 55-7 loss to Gretna

Photos by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

Oct 21, 2023

Govs special teams player Jamire Terry-Giles blocks a Gretna extra point attempt in the first half on Oct. 20. The Hawks won 55-7. After starting the season 4-0, Nelson is on a five-game skid and its losing streak to Gretna extended to 18 dating back to 2003.

Photo by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

Nelson head football coach Jack Baker has the attention of his players during a first half timeout during Friday's game against Gretna.

Photo by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

Govs punter Nicholas Wood boots the ball against Gretna.

Photo by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

Govs quarterback Colton Baker sets to pass the ball as a Gretna defender closes in.

Photo by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

Nelson County's Demetrius Bell reacts to his near interception against Gretna.

Photo by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

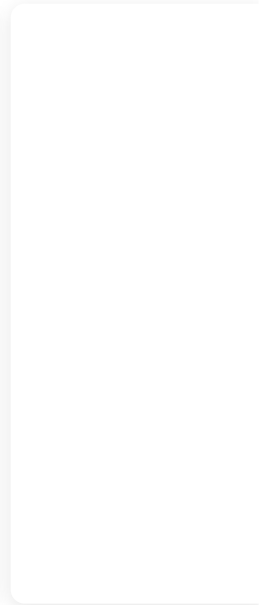

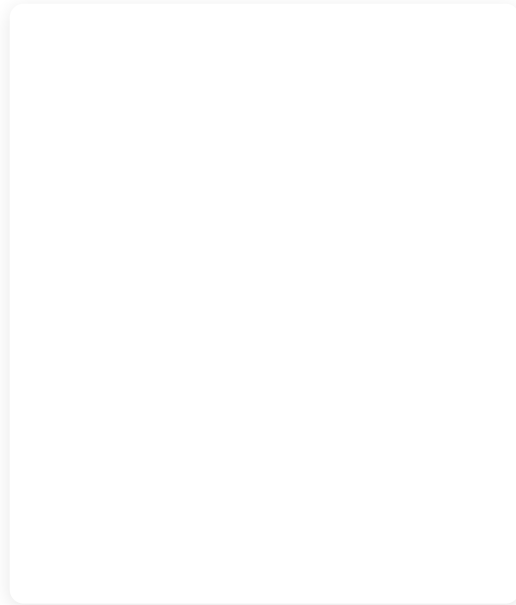

Govs defender Hunter Garrett, left, hangs on to a Hawks ball carrier.

Photo by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

Govs Tre Terry throws a block against the Gretna defense, clearing room for Demetrius Bell.

Photo by Lee Luther Jr., for the Nelson County Times

Most Popular

Lady Govs battle the Appomattox Raiders

Nelson defeats Gretna in Dogwood district showdown

Lt. Lady Govs take on Appomattox

Nelson JV team battles Gretna

Lt. Lady Govs won district opener against Chatham

A look back at the year in sports
